

Congruence or Coincidence

AUDIO VERSION

Good morning, Saints.

I greet you on this 30th of June, Sunday morning, 2024. Firstly, I would just like to discuss This ministry with you before I share on what I have wanted to send out this morning. Those of you who've been with me a while know that in July last year, a member of our family was involved in a very serious accident which entailed many, many months in hospital and rehabilitation, and currently that person is still convalescing and in a semi-invalid state. As a result, I have had hugely increased financial responsibilities since the middle of last year, and I have now come to the place where I find not only is it difficult to snatch a moment to share and record messages and do transcripts, but I also find I am unable to sustain this ministry in its present form financially. So I am going to have to make some changes. I presently have a podcast that has all my podcasts that I've ever recorded on the site, with unlimited bandwidth. I find I'm unable to meet the costs of that and so I'm going to, in the next weeks, reduce that podcast to the free podcast subscription that is offered, by removing most of the podcasts from the site. What I'm going to do is put the older podcasts into zip files and upload them onto my website so that they can still be downloaded by you and listened as you would like. I will do them in quarters; so 4 zip files for a year. It also costs me every time I get a transcript done, so I may in time (I haven't made that decision yet), but I may, in time, no longer offer transcripts, which means I will only be sending out a link to my audio file on email to subscribers.

I'm sad about this because I know there are quite a few people who like to print out the transcripts and then study them and make their own notes in the margins, and keep them all in a file, because the Lord often refers back to old podcasts and old messages... But I am not going to do that right now. I'm just going to see how things go. You know, people ask me why don't I have a YouTube channel because that is free? The reason is that YouTube messages are monitored and as the Lord often has me speak on controversial topics, many of my messages would just be removed and censored on YouTube, and the Lord instructed me to move away from YouTube and find a platform where I had ownership of what was released, and that it would stay available.

For the same reason I removed my PayPal button because PayPal now has a law in which if you disseminate information that is contrary to the official narrative, PayPal will fine you $2,000. Now, in the conversion to my currency that is about 30,000 rand, if not closer to R40,000, which I am completely unable to meet. So, the PayPal button has gone, and now I have other ways that one can sow into the ministry if one is led to by the Lord. The Telegram channel that I run is completely free, and those who are on it know that it's the first place I post notice of a podcast. I also put other messages on Telegram on the channel in between - short things that the Lord reminds me of or to remind us of old posts. So, it's quite beneficial to be a part of the Telegram channel Fresh Oil Releases, depending on how things unfold in the weeks ahead.

Should the Lord provide the grace for us to keep going without the whole internet being shut down within the next three months, then, I may, if push comes to shove, end up with only a Telegram channel. So, let's just see what the Lord does, but I did want to let you know in advance of the changes that will be coming.

Now, I've titled this message 'Congruences or Coincidences'. Now, for those who have eyes to see and ears to hear, very often the Spirit connects things that are happening on the earth to things in His Word. For someone else who is not flowing with the Spirit, they would just say, "Oh, that thing that has happened is an absolute coincidence!" but it's not... So I just want to discuss a couple of recent events that have happened and how the Lord connected them for me to what is written in the Word of God. Now, when I woke up this morning, I wanted to do this podcast, my laptop wouldn't function. It is still limping along, so I cannot minimize windows on my laptop and open other windows because once I've minimized something, I can't get it back again. So, I'm doing the best I can. I am going to not switch off or pause the podcast in case it doesn't start recording again, so you're going to hear a lot of clicking while I do the long-winded way of opening my file with the notes I want to speak to you about, so bear with me on this. It's just a little hindrance and resistance from the enemy.

So, when something is congruent, it flows in the same direction as something else. It seems to be in step and be in line with something else that is happening. On the 6th of June 2024, there was an anniversary of an important event that day. The sixth day of the sixth month is called D-Day, and it was the 80th anniversary of the massive Allied landings on the beaches of Normandy, France; which began on the sixth hour of the sixth day of the sixth month in that year, 80 years ago. It was a decisive moment in World War II. It routed the Nazis from France and Western Europe.

Now, those of you who are listening heard the 666 in the timing of those Allied landings - what that tells us is that there's a signalling that all these things that happened, both the 1st and the 2nd World War and the one that is coming (the Third World War) are all to bring about changes on the earth in preparation for the coming Antichrist and the New World Order. So, what is D-Day? D-Day is a day when something important will start to happen. It is an undetermined or secret day and hour for the start of a military operation. So, it is a military term and when the day and the time are fixed for a military operation, subordinates are informed. So, on this 80th anniversary, King Charles did not attend because of his continued convalescence from his cancer diagnosis, and so he sent his son William in his place. I didn't watch the whole paraphernalia going on, but I did read a news report about what happened, and the headline said:

‘Standing with seven presidents, three kings and too many prime ministers to count, Prince William steps up for his most high-profile role on the international stage yet.’

So those of you who have listened to my message, The Keystone Set in Place, in which I discussed Prince Charles becoming King Charles and the connection to the coming Antichrist, and what the Lord had shown to me about his position in the whole matter. I did make a mistake in that message in which I said I felt that King Charles would not ever be enthroned - and obviously, of course he was, but I do believe that he will not rule for long. With his cancer diagnosis, obviously, there is a shortening of his potential lifespan as well. So, I feel that the Lord is showing me things about Prince William in connection with the Antichrist.

We know that King Charles has presented his bloodline credentials to both the Jewish and the Muslim authorities as being acceptable as part of both bloodlines. William, however, also has the Merovingian bloodline, which is the 13th Illuminati bloodline from his mother, Diana. I said in 'The Keystone in Place', that I felt that Charles was playing a John the Baptist role of the preparing of the way for the coming of the false messiah, and that I felt that William would step up to that role, being more the right age, and also with the fact that the Antichrist will be a very popular individual and well liked - and we all know that Charles is not that popular. So, when I read this headline, 'Standing with seven presidents and three kings, Prince William steps up for this most high-profile role on the international stage yet', I thought, "Hmm, that's very interesting..." and the Holy Spirit reminded me of the scripture about the first beast coming out of the sea, and it says revelation 13:1

‘As I stood on the sandy beach, I saw a beast coming out of the sea with ten horns and seven heads...’

Now, that headline spoke of seven presidents (or seven heads) and three kings. Now seven plus three is ten - and we see that the beast coming out of the sea has TEN horns. Horns are powers, and heads are authorities over nations. So, the ten horns are powers, coupled with seven authorities. So, seven presidents and three kings are all horns, are they not? They are all powers in different nations. And Prince William stepped up and appeared amongst them. And of course, John was standing on a sandy BEACH... It was on the BEACHES of Normandy that the D-Day invasion took place. And remember, it is the commencement of a military operation that bears the hidden messaging of 666.

We read further on in Revelation 13 that one of the heads of the beast seemed to have a deadly wound, but his death stroke was healed. Now, people have assumed because of other scriptures that the wound would be in the head of a person, but a head is an authority, a governmental authority in a nation or in an area. So this speaks of a governmental authority seeming to have a deadly wound. Is the cancer of King Charles the ‘seeming to have a deadly wound’, because we all know that when one gets a diagnosis of cancer, it seems like a death sentence, but this says that ‘his death stroke was healed’. Now King Charles has really positioned himself in the COP 28. Organization as being very much the head of it, and he has given himself the title of. King of the earth and King of the universe. He has a Terra Carta emblem and.... I don't know what the word is for the universe one.... it's left my head right now - but if you can watch Craig Bong on Jani Alan's channel on YouTube, where he describes what's going to happen in 2025, he speaks about King Charles and all his machinations for the greening of the planet and all the decisions that are being made that want to unfold by 2030.

So, the beast has got all these heads and horns and it comes up out of the sea. All these powers and heads that stood on the international stage with William in amongst them are part of the COP 28 organization and plan to reduce carbon emissions to zero (In other words, to get rid of the population of the Earth, basically so that the elite can rule).

Another thing that was very interesting on this 80th anniversary of D-Day was that there were 24 world leaders there all together. Now, in John's description of the throne room in revelation 4, there are 24 elders. So, we see there's a counterfeit going on here, because elders are leaders - those who have wisdom, who are given authority to rule. They sit in the gate of a city and they pass judgment on things. So, when William represented King Charles alongside 24 world leaders, you find here a counterfeit of the whole throne room situation. So, as I read this report, this news report, I saw that it said:

'In royal terms, as in politics, optics are everything, and it was lost on no one that this was a glimpse into William's future, hopefully one that is still many years away, but in his future nonetheless. He was by turns dignified and regal, but also warm and friendly, laying a wreath with solemnity, but greeting veterans with an air of approachable camaraderie'.

Here we have William, the well-loved international statesman, and it said that it took place on the once bloodstained beaches of San Laurent sur Mer, which is 'Saint Lawrence of the Sea'. This beach was code named 'Omaha' for the purposes of the D-Day landings, and William's arrival 'prompted loud applause and excited squeals from the audience'. So, who was Saint Lawrence or Saint Laurent? He was a priest, who was instructed by the prefect of Rome to turn over the riches of the church, and he asked for three days to gather the wealth. And on the third day, at the head of a small delegation, he presented himself to the prefect, and when ordered to deliver the treasures of the church, he presented the city's poor, crippled, blind, and suffering, and declared that these were the true treasures of the church. He said, "The church is truly rich, far richer than your emperor. And behold, in these poor persons the treasures which I promised to show you are, to which I will add pearls and precious stones - the widows and the consecrated virgins, which are the church's crown". Well, of course, the Roman prefect was utterly furious, and he had a great grid-iron prepared with hot coals underneath it, and roasted Lawrence to death. The martyr was amazing! In his suffering, he cheerfully declared, "I'm well done on this side. Turn me over". So that is what the person whom that beach is named after is famous for – martyrdom, for the sake of knowing what is the true treasure of the church and refusing to worship the god of mammon.

So here they are having this 80th anniversary celebration, all these world leaders whose god is mammon (and of course, satan). The name Laurent is a French name which means 'crowned with laurel', which is a symbol of victory and honor. So, Saint Laurent of the Sea means 'the one crowned with victory and honor of the sea'. Now, doesn't the beast rise out of the sea, or out of the nations in Revelation 13:1? Later on, in Revelation 17:12, the angel explained to John, 'the ten horns that you observed are ten rulers who have as yet received no royal dominion, but together they are to receive power and authority as rulers for a single hour along with the beast'. Obviously, that hour is the hour of trial. It's not 60 minutes.

So, we see that there is very strong signalling and an advert in that 80th D-Day anniversary celebration on Saint Laurent de la Mer beach, Normandy, France, with William doing his first engagement as an international state statesman, stepping on to the stage. He was a VIP guest.

Now I read something else interesting when I did a bit of research. General Eisenhower, who organized the D-Day invasion, called that operation 'Operation Overlord'. What is the antichrist if he is not an overlord? An overlord is a ruler. It was the largest seaborne invasion in history. The New World Order and the One World Government will be the largest invasion of sovereign nations in history.

So, I pondered on these things. Obviously, it's a whole almost a whole month since that D-Day anniversary because I was trying to hear what the Spirit was saying, and He led me to a video where someone brought to light the fact that King Charles had hand stamped his mark on a silver cross. That cross was later used in his inauguration and crowning. Now, if that is not a type and a sign, I do not know what is. He hand-stamped the King's mark on a silver cross. Part of the hallmark on silver is a leopard's head. That was the mark that King Charles hand-stamped on a silver cross. Now to me that is a real prophetic sign, because the beast has the head of a leopard, and stamping your mark on a silver cross depicts marking the Church or Body of Christ and branding it with your mark of ownership. The beast with the iron teeth was given authority, Daniel tells us, to overcome the church.

<https://anglotopia.net/british-heritage/king-charles-handstamps-kings-mark-on-silver-cross-gifted-to-church-in-wales/> (in NOV 2022)

King Charles commissioned the incorporation of a fragment from the real cross of Christ into that newly created cross of Wales, which he then presented to the church in Wales. Now remember that Wales is where the symbol of the red dragon is connected. The Pope had given Prince Charles those fragments from the real cross of Christ.

So, the word 'mark' in Revelation 14:9, the 'mark' of the beast is charagma, G5480 and it means 'a scratch, an etching or a stamp'. Did King Charles not stamp the silver cross with his mark, the mark of a leopard? Now there are many people who think that King Charles is the Antichrist, and I think Tim Cohen has written a book called The Antichrist and a Cup of Tea, where he lays down all the evidence why he says this, but he forgets about the 13th Illuminati bloodline. Remember that William, because he is the son of Charles, also has the Jewish bloodline and the Muslim bloodline. He carries everything his father carries and more.

So, when I was pondering this and I was staring at this D-Day anniversary photograph, the Lord said to me, "Did I not send My Son to represent me on the earth? And Jesus said, 'If you've seen Me, you've seen the Father'." I said, "Yes, Lord". He said, "Well, this father (referring to King Charles), sent his son to represent him before humanity on the 80th anniversary of D-Day". Charles sent William to represent him. 80 is the numerical value of the Hebrew letter pey. And pey means 'mouth'. In Daniel 7, it speaks about the beast:

'After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible and exceedingly strong, and it had great iron teeth. It devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue (or remnant) with its feet. And it was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns. I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots. And behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things'.

So there again we see the ten horns mentioned. Remember the headline I read? Seven presidents and three kings - those are all horns, ten horns... And did William not COME UP AMONGST THOSE TEN HORNS on the D-Day anniversary? And he is a little horn because he is the son of the King. And it says, 'Behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great (or wonderful) things'. Now William also has on his crest the unicorn with the eye like a man, and he has a mouth speaking great or wonderful things. It is the terra carta and the astra carta that are declared by Charles; the King of Earth and King of Heaven, and HE SENT HIS SON to represent him because he has seemed to have a deadly wound with the battle with cancer.

So, in Revelation 13:11, it describes a second beast. The first beast came out of the sea of the nations, but the second beast comes out of the earth.

Verse 11 'And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb. (In other words, seems like a gentle sort) But he spake like a dragon, and he exercised all the power of the first beast before him, and caused the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast whose deadly wound was healed.'

The reason why William exercises all the power of the first beast is because he was sent by King Charles to represent him and given all the authority he needed to represent him - just like Jesus was sent by the Father and all authority in heaven and on earth (Terra carta & astra carta) was given to him. And he's very loyal to the king. Remember when the king was crowned? He bowed before him and swore that he would be his liegeman (loyal follower). 'And he causes the earth and all those who dwell therein to worship the first beast whose deadly wound was healed'. So those are some congruences that I noticed with that D-Day, uh, celebration, the 80th anniversary. So, I'm just suggesting some things for you to ponder and pray on.

The other congruence that I noticed was that for those who watch series and demonic series, the House of Dragon Season 2 premiered on the 16th of June, 2024, in the United States. And in order to celebrate that premiere, a giant inflatable dragon was attached to the Empire State Building, 102 stories above midtown Manhattan. That dragon was 270 foot long. So I thought to myself, "What is going on here, Lord? We are in the year of the Dragon, Chinese year of the Dragon, and now the house of Dragon is making a giant dragon clutching the Empire State Building in New York State?"

In the early Barley Calendar, 16th of June was the 10th of Tammuz. What is that an anniversary of? It is the day when King Zedekiah was captured. The Babylonians breached the walls of Jerusalem on the 9th of Tammuz, and King Zedekiah ran away out of the city and was captured in the plains of Jericho on the 10th of Tammuz. He was taken to King Nebuchadnezzar, who forced him to witness the slaughter of his sons, and then he had his eyes gouged out and was taken to Babylon. So that giant inflatable dragon on the Empire State Building was put in place on the 9th Tammuz or the 15th of June, in order to be visible on the 16th of June, when the premiere of The House of Dragon was announced and advertised and launched.

So, the dragon has made himself visible in the earth. Remember in Revelation 12, there is war in heaven and then the dragon is cast out into the earth. Now, people who make these dragon balloons are not trying to fulfil the Book of Revelation, but remember, they are demonically inspired and therefore they are propelled to produce signs in the earth for those who have understanding of the times. So, the dragon that they put up there was anchored onto the building at 153 points. Why am I emphasizing this? Because in the Gospels, we all know the story: After Jesus resurrection, where they had been fishing all night and caught nothing, and He said, 'cast your boats on the other side', (He shouted from the BEACH) and they brought up 153 fish - and that is the gematria for the phrase 'the sons of God'. So, the fact that they anchored this dragon to the Empire State Building at 153 points tells you that there are sons of the counterfeit god; the evil one, in whom the dragon will be anchored and represented in the earth.

The visitors were able to pre-register for 'The Game of Thrones' on the 80th floor of the Empire State Building. It was the 80th anniversary of D-Day just ten days before that. And then on the 80th floor of the Empire State Building, they can write down their names and register to be a part of this 'House of Dragon' Game of Thrones business. How interesting - the throne of the true God against the throne of the counterfeit, who wants the throne of the true God.

Now, there was also green lighting every hour, and there was fan photo opportunities with the legendary IRON Throne from the House of the Dragon - remember, the beast has IRON teeth, and the green horse or the pale horse is the fourth horse that begins to ride... and remember it is the fourth beast that is different from every other.

In addition to the giant dragon on the Empire State Building, massive banners featuring enormous dragons with a message 'All must Choose' were digitally hung on the New York Stock Exchange (that's connected to finance), Manhattan Bridge, Penn Station, Rockefeller Center, Brooklyn Bridge Bridge, Grand Central Station, and Washington Square Park. So, in all these places that are landmarks and significant geographical areas, digital banners of dragons saying 'All must choose' were displayed, and this promotional campaign was not limited to New York City. It is reported that there were digital banner takeovers of major landmarks all over the globe.

The Dragon is advertising that he is here and all must choose their allegiance.

Cities around the world, including the Eiffel Tower in Paris, Sugarloaf Mountain in Rio de Janeiro, Sydney Harbor, Al-ula in Saudi Arabia. Petronas Twin Towers in Kuala Lumpur. Obelisco in Buenos Aires and the Marina Bay Sands in Singapore, had these dragon banners digitally imposed upon them. That means that they were not really there, but it was digitally manipulated on the internet to make it look like the dragon had taken over those places. Those banners do not actually exist, but there was a clear declaration released worldwide that all must choose - Are you going to be of the House of the Dragon (In other words, one of his sons) or are you going to be worn out and overcome by the House of Dragon and the Fourth beast? Isn't that shocking?

Last Sunday, the evening of the 23rd June in the Early Barley Calendar, was the beginning of the 17th Tammuz. That is the day when Moses came down from the mountain and broke the tablets - when he saw the idolatry with the golden calf. It is the day Moses told the people to CHOOSE where they wanted to stand - with God, or with the golden calf idol. What is the slogan presented all over the world with digital banners announcing – 'All must choose'. And what were they referring to? They had to choose which team they were on, green or black.

So, let's read that in Exodus 32. 'As soon as he had come near the camp, he saw the calf and the dancing, and Moses anger blazed hot, and he cast the tablets out of his hands and broke them at the foot of the mountain'. Verse 25. 'And when Moses saw that the people were unruly and unrestrained, for Aaron had let them get out of control, so that they were a derision and an object of shame amongst their enemies. Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp and said, whoever is on the Lord's side, let him come to me. And all the Levites gathered together to him'. Literally in the Hebrew, Moses said, "Who is for the Lord?" and all the Levites gathered together to him. The name 'Levi' means 'joined'. And if you remember, when the Israelites left Egypt and came to Mount Sinai, God said He would take the tribe of Levi for Himself instead of the sacrifice of the first born. So, Levi represents those who are joined or who belong to the Lord. He is theirs, and they are His. So, there was a very great separation on that day, 17th of Tammuz. All had to choose whether they were for the Lord or for the dragon. And there are multitudes and multitudes in the valley of decision at this time.

The 17th of Tammuz, which is last Sunday night is also the day the walls of Jerusalem were breached by the Romans in 69 A.D. It is a fast day, and the start of three weeks of mourning before the destruction of the temple on the ninth of Av. So, Jerusalem's walls were breached twice in history, on the 10th Tammuz and on the 17th Tammuz. On the 10th Tammuz (in Early Barley Calendar), the date they set up the dragon and announced all over the world that people must choose, that is when the Babylonians breached the walls of Jerusalem. The 17th Tammuz was when the walls were breached by the Romans in 69 A.D. And the temple was destroyed twice - once by the Babylonians and once by the Romans. Both happened on the 9th of Av, which is the next Hebrew month. So, something is going to be happening within the next three weeks that is quite devastating for the temple of God or the Church in the earth.

Now that dragon in the House of Dragon Banners has three heads, but the dragon in Revelation 12 had seven heads and ten horns. In the scripture in Daniel, it said that the little horn came up amongst the ten horns, and 'before him three horns were plucked up'. So, what I'm asking myself is, "Are these three horns that were plucked up the same kings or powers as the three ribs in the bear's mouth?" In War Chronicles series, a couple of years ago, the Lord had said to me that the three ribs represented Germany, France and Britain, which I find quite interesting because these are all supplying troops and weapons to Ukraine. Are these the three heads represented by the House of Dragon, I'm asking myself... I don't know.

So, Beloved, there are very interesting signs appearing in the earth in these days to tell us that we are entering the next season. The time for people to do their final choosing is basically here. Prince William did his signalling appearance on D-Day, representing his father as an international statesman bearing all his authority - As a 'little horn', being a prince and not a head or a horn. At this time, he was just a little horn. Is this what we are being shown? Take it to prayer, Beloved. Ask for eyes to see and ears to hear and ask the Holy Spirit, as I am doing, to correct any of our doctrines of end times unfolding where we have things wrong. We want to be able to be in the position to be able to say when something happens, "This is that which was spoken of..." May the Lord bless you and add to your understanding and the revelation you hold, and may He strengthen you to exercise endurance and patience with joy as you walk out your bondsman walk, remaining true to Him and focusing on His face. Amen.
