

A P.S. and a Puzzle

Hello Precious Remnant.

This podcast is going to have a number of topics, so it's not one continuous flowing message. The first thing I want to share with you is a p.s. to My Pomegranate Bride part four. Do you remember that I shared that I had pomegranates with spots and blemishes, and when I soaked them in salt water, worms came out and the Lord spoke from Jude about those who worm their way in amongst believers, and He wouldn't let me throw the whole pomegranate away. He had me separate out the unblemished arils, or the little pomegranate rubies from the rotten bits - and my chickens got to eat the rotten bits. He used the scripture in Ezekiel 34, if I remember rightly, that He will divide between sheep and sheep, and He will judge those who have infiltrated the Body of the Bride and defiled it in any way with doctrines of demons or their vile lifestyles.

So, I picked another one of my pomegranates, and as I was separating out, one by one, the plump, juicy whole arils the Lord emphasized for me (He kind of zoomed in) and He showed me that there were beautiful, whole, unblemished arils attached right next to completely rotten, decayed, and infiltrated ones. He emphasized to me that HE will divide between sheep and sheep, that we are not to judge, because the Word of God says, 'judge nothing before the appointed time, when He makes manifest the counsels of the heart'. Using the example of IHOP (International House of Prayer), with the fiasco of Mike Bickle's sexual deviancy coming to light, He said that the tendency of human nature is to want to cast the whole of the 24-hour prayer movement in the bin and say, "I want nothing to do with that. I'm going away," but the Lord has opened up the pomegranate and begun to divide between sheep and sheep, and He knows the depths of the hearts of everyone in the midst of that movement - and every other movement where leaders are exposed for sin. There are pure-hearted believers who are sincerely following the Lord with all their heart, and were completely unaware of the shenanigans that were going on in the closet. So God is going to separate out Himself, by His hand, those arils; those saints who are whole and pure and whole-hearted towards Him and were not involved at all in the sin, even though they could have spent the last ten years sitting in the pews next to someone who has allowed their heart to become completely rotten to the core, being involved in abominable sin. So, I just wanted to emphasize that because the Holy Spirit emphasized it to me.

I do also want to say that some information was brought to my attention. You know, Count Zinzendorf and the Moravians are the ones that the 24 hour prayer movement is attributed to, and when this whole exposure came with IHOP, I thought, "Oh Lord, it comes from such a pure root and yet here, something's gone off somewhere along the way, and all this fleshly sin is manifesting in the leadership". And then the Lord brought some information before my eyes that enlightened me concerning Count Zinzendorf, who started the 24-hour prayer movement with his followers. I was absolutely shocked to the core because he's always hailed in Bridal Remnant circles in the Body of Christ as a really godly man who had an incredible influence and impact upon the Body of Christ. When this information came to my attention, I discovered that a lot has been covered up - that Count Zinzendorf was involved in gross sexual deviancy, and his doctrine was completely defiled and impure. I don't want to say more than that, but if anyone wants to know more details about what he actually taught and what his own personal habits were, you can write to me at freshoil@polka.co.sa and I will send you a PDF with links that you can go to to discover the truth about this man.

When I had got over my shock, which took probably about a week because I was just gobsmacked at what had come to light, and that he had been parading as a messenger of righteousness and an angel of light, and the current day church has also presented him as that, but he is actually far from that, when I got over that shock, I realized with the help of the Holy Spirit that this was in fact connected to that scripture that says the sins of the father are visited on the sons to the third and fourth generation. It doesn't mean that the judgment is poured out on the sons to the third and fourth generation. It's the actual sin, the demonic spirit and the unclean spirit that's attached to that sin will visit up to the third and fourth generation coming from that father - if there is not repentance and a complete cleansing AND bearing fruit in keeping with repentance. The present day IHOP is about four generations down from the original Moravian and Kansans City movement. So, that was very eye opening and very disturbing because the Lord did say He was going to expose those who've wormed their way into the Body. And we thought it was just the small branches at the end of the tree, but it's actually the whole root of that 24-hour prayer movement that has an unclean, sexually deviant spirit attached to it, and gross doctrines of demons being taught at its root - absolutely vile!! The ax has to be laid at the root of that tree, BUT, as that is done, the Lord will rescue by hand, separating out between sheep and sheep. He will separate and call out and bring out those that are uncontaminated and pure, yet affiliated with that movement. It's it's really quite a disturbing thing to see what the Lord has said playing out in real time, and then Him exposing what is at the root of the whole problem. Okay, enough of that!

Then I discovered when I re-examined my last pomegranate that was on the tree, that it was absolutely perfect. It had not one spot or blemish, and the Lord would only let me pick it on the 23rd of Adar Bet, which was Tuesday, 5th of March. That day. Is the day that the tabernacle was erected for the first time in the wilderness, 23rd of Adar, for the week of training to begin for the priests. They put the tabernacle up every morning and pulled it down every night for a whole week, while the priests learned about what they were going to have to do, and then they were only inaugurated into the tabernacle practice and anointed and all that sort of thing I think on the 2nd Aviv or the 3rd.

So when I picked this perfect pomegranate, I heard a scripture out of Song of Songs. 'My love, My dove, My perfect one. She stands alone above the rest'. Nothing had wormed its way into the interior of that pomegranate. And so that pomegranate represents a small remnant that has kept themselves pure in the midst of the defilement that's generally in the Church Body. And you know, the Lord wouldn't let me open it. It sat on my dressing table for a couple of days, while I admired how beautiful it was in its blemish-free state, without spot or wrinkle, and then He told me to put it in the fridge, put it on ice, so to speak, that it would be opened up and the beauty of its pure interior revealed only later. And there's a lot of prophetic implication in that very action that he had me do.

Right! Enough of pomegranates. The next thing I wanted to share with you was just a lovely gem that the Holy Spirit gave me. I went away for the weekend with members of my family, and what we normally do when we go away is we take a puzzle, probably a thousand-piece puzzle with us, and everybody helps to put the puzzle together during the course of the weekend. Now we were going away for three days, and the picture of the puzzle we were doing was a city with a big river and a bridge, and the afternoon sun was shining on the city. Right in the centre was one building where there was golden light coming from the building, because of the color of the building (it was probably a sandstone kind of color).

Anyway, we did the puzzle for the first couple of days, and by the evening of the second day it was mostly completed and there seemed to be two puzzle pieces missing, which is really irritating because it was a new puzzle (e had cut open the sealed packet inside to do it for the first time). On the morning of the third day. My brother-in-law, whose name is Stuart., was looking at this puzzle with its two missing pieces (we hadn't packed it up yet) and he bent down and looked at the foot of the table, and there was a puzzle piece half sticking out from under the foot (the foot had little rubber sticky things on so it wouldn't scratch the floor, and so there was a tiny gap under the foot). So this puzzle piece was sticking out, and it turned out to be the puzzle piece that was missing in the section of dark water in the river.

So, then he decided to get down on his hands and knees, and, as I stood there watching him, he blew under the foot of the table. And right on my side, out flew the last missing puzzle piece - and it was that golden yellow color in the middle of that building that looked so beautiful with the sunlight on it. So, we were all very happy because the missing puzzle pieces had been found and we could finish the puzzle – there was a great sense of satisfaction!

Now, when I got home, the Holy Spirit reminded me that in dreams that I have, He has very often used Stuart to represent the Holy Spirit. Then He said to me that we, as His remnant, have put a whole lot of puzzle pieces together that He's given us, but the picture is not complete. There is something that we do not see - and we feel frustrated because we feel just like we did on that second day, that we're going to just never receive it and never have full understanding and want to write a letter of complaint to the 'manufacturer' almost. But He gave me the scripture in 2 Peter 1:3.

'His divine power has bestowed on us all things requisite for life and godliness, through the full knowledge of Him who called us to His glory and excellence.'

Passion Translation says, 'everything we ever need for life and complete devotion to God has already been deposited in us by His divine power'.

So, the Lord was saying, you have all the puzzle pieces within you. I've already given you all the pieces of the puzzle, but some are in hiddenness at the moment. Ask the Holy Spirit to breathe and blow upon your heart, and to reveal the missing puzzle piece, especially the one concerning the glory. Yes, there was one concerning the dark waters that was also missing, but that was quite easily found. It was kind of half sticking out in plain sight, and we need to ask the Holy Spirit to bring it into plain view.

Now, the other interesting thing was that I had a mental image of what that missing golden piece looked like, but it was not accurate. It looked from the rest of the puzzle pieces that made the side of the building, that it would just be a plain golden yellow one, but it was not. There were other details on there that I didn't know were there. And that's what the Lord is saying. You have everything you need within you. You don't need to run to a conference. You don't need to rush off to the Christian bookshop and buy another book. You don't need to seek outwardly for the missing puzzle pieces, for you to get the full picture and to understand the picture He's been building within your heart. It is WITHIN you and you just need to ask the Holy Spirit to bring it to light. The Spirit of Truth is the one that searches the deep things of God. And He says, 'call unto Me, and I will show you great and mighty things that you know not'. 'You have already been given...' It's past tense. You've ALREADY been given everything you need for life and godliness. It has already been deposited in you. It just has to be brought out into the light.

The other scripture the Holy Spirit highlighted was 1 John 2:27, 'and the anointing which you receive from Him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone teach you, but as His anointing teaches you concerning all things and is true and is not a lie, as He has taught you, abide in Him'.

Passion translation version: 'The wonderful anointing you have received from God now lives in you. There's no need for anyone to keep teaching you. His anointing teaches you all that you need to know. It will lead you into truth, not a counterfeit. So just as the anointing has taught you, remain in Him'.

Now, this should be a great comfort to all of us, because at some point the internet is not going to be available to those who don't want to cooperate with the plans for world domination and the marking of people. And then we're not going to be able to rush off to YouTube to watch a video, to look up to certain topics on Google and that kind of thing, because access to these things will be at the price of your submitting to the whole scheme that's going on to rule over everyone... and at some point, you're going to have to deny the Lord in order to keep using the things of the world system. Of course, we don't want to do that, so it's a great comfort that He's already given us everything we need. It's a great comfort that we don't need others to teach us because the anointing will teach us. Yes, God does give teachers to the Body, but you shouldn't live your life based on hanging on the words from another's lips. You should get your primary source of spiritual nourishment from the Lord Himself.

You know, I remember a few years ago, reading a news story that happened in Israel. I think it was in Jerusalem, if I'm correct. A couple wanted to revamp their house, and I think they wanted to redo the floors of their lounge area. So they wanted to take up the old tiles. I think they were terracotta tiles or something. So, they got a jackhammer to break them up and get the floor ready for the new covering that they wanted to put there. At some point in this process, the jackhammer suddenly disappeared and plunged into a hole under the floor - and it was discovered that underneath the living room floor was a mikvah pool. Now, for those of you that are new to Jewish history and how things were done in ancient times, when God said to have a cleansing bath and to wash yourselves because of impurity, it was done with a mikvah. Women, after they'd had their period, would have to go to a mikvah bath and wash, as a symbolic gesture of being cleansed from impurity. But this couple had this cleansing, purifying bath right under their lounge floor. They didn't have to go out their front door for a source of cleansing and washing. They had everything they needed for life and for godliness right within their own living room.

That's what the Lord is saying. He's given you everything you need for life and godliness. Jesus says that those who come to Him to drink will have rivers of living water. He cleanses us with the words of His lips. He washes us with the water of the Word - that is how we are cleansed. We do not have to seek an outward source of living water. And, you know, sometimes we feel dry and barren, but if you will just dig a bit deeper, if you will just take the time, you will break through into new depths in your spiritual life. I think it's Psalm 83 that says, 'blessed is the man whose strength is in You, in whose heart is the highway to Zion. Passing through the valley of weeping, they make it a place of springs. They go from strength to strength, and each of them appears before God in Zion'. Now, the reason why I can just quote that by heart is because I've been through many valleys of weeping, and that Scripture is what fed me in those days.

So how do you make a valley of weeping, a place of springs? You've got to dig down deep in order to access the underground water sources, just like that couple in Jerusalem that had to break through the living room floor to find something that had been there all the time, but they didn't know it. And once you have dug and released a spring that's been hidden, the next weeping person that comes past that way has access to that spring of living water that you dug in your time of weeping. So that's why God allows us to go through these things - so that we can comfort with the comfort we have received from God.

You know, I have a friend, who's a bit of a homesteader, and she, has got rain tanks all around her house to catch the rainwater off the roof, but they were finding that it still wasn't enough water because their whole plot is vegetable garden and fruit trees. So, she saved up and decided to put in a borehole. They drilled to about I think it was 26m or something and they hit water - and that was fantastic. She was rejoicing. Then about a week later, the water stopped and they didn't know what was the problem. So, she had to call the guy back in and he said that the spring was all blocked up with river stones, and it had completely blocked off the flow of that spring.

You know, sometimes, when we go through the valley of weeping, it's because stones have been thrown at us - words of people that hurt. We've been falsely accused. We've been despised... all sorts of things. These things have blocked up the spring that we would be able to drink from within our heart, and until you exercise forgiveness and completely release those people, the Lord can't remove those river stones. What actually happened with that guy drilling the borehole is that he tried to drill deeper, but he hit a very thick layer of bedrock and his drill would not go through it. So, he had to start again and dig a new borehole about a meter or so away. And he went down much, much deeper, and they got this incredibly powerful flow of water from their borehole - hundreds and hundreds of gallons an hour. So sometimes there has to be a fresh drilling. There has to be the jackhammer going down and finding a source of subterranean water that God has always had there within for us, but the valley of weeping has to be passed through until we start to dig.

You know, when you're discouraged and you're hurting, sometimes the first thing we want is human comfort. We want to discuss the situation with friends. We want to go on YouTube and find videos that will comfort us and encourage us and all that sort of thing.

But what God is saying is that right within you is everything you need for life and for godliness. Dig deep, Beloved. Dig deep. Dig much deeper than you've ever dug before, and the power of the flow of living water inside you will astound you.

So, I just wanted to encourage you with that. The missing puzzle pieces are waiting to be brought out into the open, and the Holy Spirit will do it if you ask Him. Don't go and look to other people to give you a word. If you hear a prophet is speaking in a certain church, don't rush off there to get a personal prophecy. Jesus Himself wants to speak to you. Jesus Himself wants to be the source of your living water, in your own personal inner chamber. So may the Lord bless you and keep you. May He add to what I've shared. May he just shine the light of truth on any situation that you're struggling with and give you understanding, revelation, and direction. In the mighty name of Jesus, Amen.
