

Greetings in the powerful Name of Jesus. I am not going to apologize for posting a number of messages in these days leading up to Passover. I have to be obedient to release the words He gives me to speak at the moment He instructs to send them out. I answer to Him and you are free to lay them aside or to read and digest them all exactly as His Spirit leads each of you. I am merely making them available while we still have this method of communication.

Last night, I felt impressed to watch a documentary of the the events that led to the fall of the last Tzar of Russia. Then when I woke this morning, someone sent me a link to a prophetic word that had been released on a very large well-known prophetic platform on the internet. As I gazed at the title of the message and wondered whether to read it, the Lord began to speak, at times using the documentary of Russia I had watched as a parable to explain what He meant:

"Look not at what the Church in harlotry is doing. They release only mixture; the holy defiled by the unholy spirit of harlotry with this world, and many are seduced thereby. Look only to Me and follow Me; I will lead you out before judgment falls. Rasputin used a beguiling unclean spirit to seduce many into spiritual and physical adultery in his day. He used his demonic power to gain the ear of the throne, just as it is now in circles of power, and he caused the downfall of the tzar and the slaughter of his family. I look not to the tzars of the church in this new season. I remove them from their station and I am raising up those who are 'tsadik', righteous in My eyes. My Melchizedek priesthood arises to positions of influence in the days after the great slaughter. They are kings of Salem, Kings who carry My shalom and have the ability to release counsel that heals and restores."

I asked, "Lord, is this in the church or in the world leadership?"

"Both! But first, I deal with My church. The Shebnas are being struck off the roll in this hour and My Eliakims wait in the wings for Me to raise them up and set them in positions of My choosing. And the fleshly rulers who have gone into their closets to hide from this plague will not escape My hand there, for My debar; My righteous judgements, will enter their houses and strike them even in their soulish prayer hours. You see that city that dwelt carelessly now brought to her knees as the plague strikes prince and pauper alike. I have closed the trading floors that have trafficked in the souls of men and I have set up circuit courts of My righteous judgements. Come, reason with Me. Present your cases, you who call yourselves by My Name, but your hearts are far from Me. Yes, it is true - I can turn blood-stained garments, soaked with the sin of adultery with this world into white linen, but first I require godly sorrow. First I require acknowledgement of the error of your wanderings away from My righteous plumbline. First I require the washing of tears and the putting away of your idols.

I desire to rule in your favour, My people. I do not delight in releasing the judgement of strong discipline, but I am the same, yesterday, today and forever. I change not. My mercy is readily available to those whose hearts are broken with sorrow for sin in this hour. So you choose, I set before you life and death... and My counsel remains the same - choose Life. But know this, all you multitudes in the valley of decision, the way is narrow that leads to life and there is but one Door, and it is covered with the Blood of My Righteous Sacrifice. Your lives are being weighed in this hour. Examine yourselves to see if you are truly in the faith handed down to you by your forefathers in My Body. Rend your hearts and not your lavish outer garments and I will receive you. I will lead you in this hour of trial that comes upon the whole earth. But think not that you can escape this hour of reckoning, or buy your way out of this appointment with My Spirit of Judgement and Burning, using your influence and the sowing of seed into the coffers of charlatans. Think not you can buy time to hire smooth-tongued lawyers to argue your case and plead for deferment. Your case has come up before Me, the Righteous Judge, and answer to Me, you must!

Many have bought their way into the halls of power in My church with persuasive words of flattery and lavish gifts rightly placed at the feet of the sceptre-holders, but few are men of My appointing. You have sullied My Name with your pride-filled antics and your pimping of souls for profit. But now, I say ENOUGH! I am the God Who lifts up and I am the God Who removes princes from their self-appointed seats. And after the shaking is over and the dust settles, only those who fear Me will stand."

The scripture passage given was the whole chapter of Isaiah 22, but the following verses were emphasised:

Isa 22:8 Then [God] removed the protective covering of Judah; and you looked to the weapons in the House of the Forest [the king's armory] in that day. Isa 22:9 You saw that the breaches [in the walls] of the City of David [the citadel of Zion] were many; [since the water supply was still defective] you collected [within the city's walls] the waters of the Lower Pool. Isa 22:10 And you numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and you broke down the houses [to get materials] to fortify the [city] wall. Isa 22:11 You also made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the Old Pool, but you did not look to the Maker of it, nor did you recognize Him Who planned it long ago. Isa 22:12 And in that day the Lord God of hosts called you to weeping and mourning, to the shaving off of all your hair [in humiliation] and to the girding with sackcloth. Isa 22:13 But instead, see the pleasure and mirth, slaying oxen and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine, [with the idea] Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die! Isa 22:14 And the Lord of hosts revealed Himself in my ears [as He said], Surely this unatoned sin shall not be purged from you until [you are punished--and the punishment will be] death, says the Lord God of hosts.
